

Enormous Horns

Many people have tried to describe The Enormous Horns - and most of them have failed. They've been called a smoldering funk band, a brassy soul revue, a hep jazz combo and a wild rock & roll band.

In truth, they're a little bit of all those things - but most of all, they're a party band. From their diverse set list to their hilarious, energetic performances, The Enormous Horns are ultimately dedicated to entertainment.

For ten years now the Enormous Horns have toured Australia, Asia and the South Pacific, attracting a large and loyal following, whilst earning respect within the entertainment industry. Though some have tried to imitate the Enormous Horns, the similarities will never compare to the polish and sophistication refined over a decade of professional entertaining.

Today, The Enormous Horns are one of the busiest, most successful acts on the Australian live circuit. Their versatility ensures their services are in constant demand for pub gigs, festivals, and corporate and private functions.

Combining great musicianship with a highly visual stage show that sometimes borders on the theatrical The Enormous Horns incorporates everything Blues Bros and Motown soul, Prince, the Beatles, tunes the Rocky Horror Show and a Village People medley.
