

Catherine Palin-Brinkworth

Catherine is a powerful, moving presenter who shifts mindsets, changes behaviour and creates demonstrable business outcomes. She specialises in accelerated human change.

Her ability to connect with people, understand power dynamics and develop high performance has kept her in demand both within Australia and internationally for two decades. Audiences respond as she leads them towards identifying their own strengths and inner power; then provides practical tools for achieving excellence.

Intelligent, researched, thought provoking and sometimes challenging- Catherine lives the messages she delivers. Her breakthrough change strategies are simple, but evolutionary, effective for leadership development and all areas of professional influence and communication. Through personal experience and the established authority of a performance track record, she will inspire your people to lift their belief in the possible and supercharge their success drive.

Whether conference keynotes, hands-on workshops or executive retreats, Catherine delivers with warmth, wit and wisdom. Catherine has recently established an enviable lifestyle on Australia's Gold Coast, but remains continually engaged with the national and international business community. Her fees include travel to your nearest major airport. Catherine's presentation topics and content are themed and customised for your needs, designed around your requests from her current topics, which include:

- ? Purpose Power and Possibilities
- ? Creating a Leadership Culture
- ? Resilience, Release and Renewal
- ? The Staggering Success of the See-Through Salesperson

Topics: Business, Business Development, Change Management, Closing Conference Speaker, Coaching, Communication, Customer Service, Female Perspective, Inspiration, Leadership, Management, Master of Ceremonies, Motivation, Opening Conference Speaker, Prospecting, Teambuilding

Travels From: Queensland

Fee Range:

$5,000+GST - $10,000+GST

Click here to view video >