

Nigel Collin

Known for his high energy, entertaining and interactive style, Nigel Collin has a rare gift of creating the right blend of cracking speed humour with getting the job done.

With over a decade of experience as an MC and Facilitator Nigel believes that in order to get your message across you need to engage your audience. His experience allows him to find the right balance between delivering the message and connecting with the audience.

As a Speaker Nigel injects creativity in businesses and runs ideas workshops. In 2006 he studied organisational creativity at The Walt Disney Company in the US.

Nigel brings with him years of business experience having worked with companies across a myriad of industries including IT, Entertainment, Finance, Pharmaceutical and Telecommunications

His book 'Think BITS', an eclectic mix of creative inspirations has sold in the US, Canada, Asia, UK and Australia

Nigel also teaches presentation for both camera and stage to both corporate clients and TV industry.

Trained as a professional actor his skills include improvisation as well as comedy and as a result he manages to bring these elements into his role - either as himself or as one of his many characters.
